Well, it looks as though the Chamber of Commerce really means business — at the special meeting Monday evening members voted to increase the lighting district and to add to the number of lights in the present district. The 100 candlepower lights now in use will be increased to 250 candlepower and will be the new type which will swing from arms on the present P. G. & E. poles.

According to L. T. Cronkite, P. G. & E. engineer, who outlined the plan, taxes in the lighting district will be increased from the present 9.4 cents per $100 assessed valuation to 21 cents which is still far below the national average.

Official action by the Board of Supervisors will be necessary to get the needed money in next year's county budget. Also expected in the near future is a petition from the residents in the area surrounding the Campbell High school to join the present lighting district since they are completely without lights.

Wednesday, June 18, the Chamber will meet for its regular monthly luncheon at 1 o'clock in the Library building. Patrick Peabody, publisher of The Campbell Press, the Los Altos News, the Saratoga Observer and the Sunnyvale Standard, will address the group. He is expected to give some inside information on the successful functioning of Chambers of Commerce since, under his presidency, the Sunnyvale Chamber of Commerce really put itself on the map last year.

You don't have to be in business to attend the Chamber meetings and everyone who is interested in the welfare of the community is urged to attend.

When I had a telephone call this week about Robert Cassel's present whereabouts, it struck a nostalgic cord. He was one of the first people about whom I wrote when I first came to Campbell. It was hard to forget about him because he had just returned after suffering three and a half years of brutality in Japanese prison camps on Corregidor and in Japan. Navy doctors were amazed that he had survived the rigors of starvation, beatings and work in a copper mine at a temperature of 10 degrees below zero.

Now, almost two years later, he is enjoying perfect health and is now at Keyport, Washington, where he is a Navy Commissioned officer at this torpedomen's station. His wife and child have arrived there to be with him and Ronald Robert will celebrate his sixth birthday there. The family will be remembering Ronald's fourth birthday when his father saw him for the first time.

Saturday night is our big chance to show that we are as aware of the need for recreational facilities as our neighboring communities. We can partake of a community endeavor, having fun and knowing that the proceeds of the fun are going for a good project. The dance, to be held in the High School gym, gives every promise of being a bang-up good one and the program which it inaugurates gives every indication of being carefully thought out and worth while.

Until the matter of a recreational district which would support a program through small taxation can be brought to a vote we will have to depend upon community endeavors for the funds. Members of the coordinating council feel this is a more equitable method than soliciting from individuals and having, in the end, the same people paying over and over again.

Our sister communities have all pitched in and are hard at work solving their recreational problems. We are not only obligated to do the same but have our own special problems which we should constantly bear in mind. First of all we have the condition, long existent here, of a large transient population which is unsettling to any community and, secondly, we face the unusual situation of having all of our grammar school age children in school for only half days in the fall.

This situation is no fault of the children's — and we owe it to them to see that we are able to compensate in some measure. The best way that we could do this will be to provide adequate playgrounds

Grammar School Graduation This Evening For 130

This evening is graduation night for the local grammar schools. Receiving their diplomas at Campbell grammar school are 130 graduates whose parents and friends will attend the event in the school auditorium tonight at 8:30.

Cambrian Grammar school with 37 graduates, boasts the largest graduating class in its history. Principal D. M. Bagby will present the diplomas at the conclusion of a program featuring the graduates with an invocation by Col. James McBride.

Union Grammar school will graduate 14 while eight students will receive diplomas at the Moreland school.

Community Dance Expected To Draw Large Crowd

Advance ticket sales indicate that a large crowd will be turning out for the community dance at the high school gym Saturday evening. Those who have been selling tickets indicate strong interest on the part of the people contacted in the purpose of the dance which is to raise funds for year around recreation as well as provide community activity.

A number of public spirited citizens have bought tickets for the purpose of supporting the drive, but are giving their tickets to people who can use them. Benny Glassman will furnish the music for Saturday night's dancing, and the reports from those young people who danced to his music last week-end at the Junior-Senior Prom are that he will certainly add a great deal to the

New Real Estate Office To Open

Opening Monday is the new Glenn Walton Real Estate office on the corner of Hamilton Ave. and the San Jose-Los Gatos highway.

Walton is well known in Campbell as the previous owner of the Red and White Store now called Lico's Market.

The small office is attractively designed and is being surrounded with flowers and lawn. Associated with Walton will be Jack Garcia, formerly a real estate salesman for Mrs. Constance Smith in Los Gatos. Garcia will also sell antiques and gifts in the building. One end has been set aside for their display. Included are hand painted articles in the Peter Hunt style, done by Mrs. Garcia.

Boys Enter Grammar School

Two would-be young prowlers were seen last night by R. Hudson climbing out of a window in the Campbell Grammar school just before dusk. They jumped quickly on their bicycles and disappeared up Third street.

Hudson summoned Constable Ethan Lanphear and William Henley, District School Superintendent, who discovered that the boys had rifled a desk in the classroom entered but had taken nothing of value.

Offering healthy recreation facilities and staffed by competent, reliable adults. This takes more than money — it takes the genuine interest of the community and it takes time. By time I mean precious hours out of already busy weeks, hours which could be spent in either profitable or pleasant ways according to our tastes. But time spent in youth work is time invested in the future. On page seven of this issue there's a letter from a former Campbell minister who points out how valuable a few hours spent now can be in future returns.

Drying Shed Is Destroyed By Fire

The drying shed on the E. R. Kennedy ranch located on S. Winchester was destroyed by fire Tuesday morning. Although the fire was outside of the Campbell Fire District the local trucks responded and used the supply of water contained in the trucks since there were no hydrants available at the scene.

Use of a flame weed killer near the shed is believed to have caused the fire. Destroyed in the blaze was a truck which had been parked in the shed. Firemen were unable to save any part of the building but saved materials near the fire and the garage which was close by.

Last Friday afternoon firemen were baffled by the blowing of the fire siren although there had been no call received nor had the glass in the fire alarm box been broken. Only explanation, according to Ethan Lanphear, fire commissioner, was a short in the line.

On the 30th of this month it will be one year since there has been a structural fire within the Campbell fire district, which is a most unusual record for communities of this size. The only call has been one last September for a small grass fire which was quickly put under control.

Small Child Entertains Club On Tuesday

Five-year-old Joan Neuberger, accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Neuberger, entertained the Campbell Kiwanis club Tuesday. She upheld the high theatrical standards present in the family since her father's early childhood in her singing and dancing. Her songs were written by her father during a lengthy illness and his patience in directing was evidenced in her poise and ability. The Neuberger family will be part of the minstrel show to be given in the Little Theater in Los Gatos on June 28.

Visitors at the luncheon were Stanley Oberg of Florida, Don Gordon of Los Altos, Al Moriarty of San Jose and Adj. Smith of the San Jose Salvation Army. Chairman of the day was Fred Jones.

At next Tuesday's meeting, Charles Crook of Mt. View, a past governor of this district, will address the club and will also install as new members Ray Fish and Norman Corvello. At the same time he will officially welcome back into the club Howard Payne. Dr. W. R. Morgan will be chairman of the day.

Junior Hardball In Second Round

The second round of the Junior Hardball league started slowly last week-end. The Boy Scout Hikoree at Gilroy plus the inclement weather kept a number of the players from participating.

In the only game played, Gilpatrick and Standish defeated Campbell Hardware. The Hardware men came from behind to knot the score at 7-all going into the last inning. Dave Baxter slammed a homer, driving in two runs ahead of him to tie the score. A wild pitch in the last frame allowed John Caruso to romp home with the winning run. Both pitchers, Tom Barton for the Hardware, and John Caruso for the winners, pitched good ball.

In the Midget league the Lucky Strikers bested the Oaks to the tune of 15-5. The Cobras and Lions put on a slam-bang affair with the Cobras coming out on top.

Cobras will play the Tigers and Lions will take on Lucky Strikers this Saturday.

LOSES CHECKS

Bart Guttormsen, operator of the Campbell Billiard Parlor, reported the loss of $215 in checks to the sheriff's office Monday. He said the loss was in or near the establishment.

LOCAL YOUTHS PLEAD GUILTY

Four Campbell youths pleaded guilty to petty theft charges in Police Judge Percy O'Connor's court last week. The four young men who reputedly attempted to "hijack" a case of beer from the Weiland's Brewery Friday evening are Bernard Calloway, 21, Ray Cox, 20, and Sylvester Maupin, 23, and Luther Enyart, 26.

X-Ray Trailer To Return Here

The X-ray trailer of the Santa Clara County Tuberculosis Association will make a special visit to Campbell at Wednesday, June 19, at 10 a.m. The trailer will be stationed in front of the Campbell Theater between 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. All residents of the Campbell area are urged to take advantage of this excellent opportunity for a chest check-up.

X-rays are free; reports are confidential. This is a Christmas Seal Sale service.

During April and May over 5000 x-rays have been taken on the tuberculosis association's mobile unit, which makes regular rounds of the county and is stationed every Monday next to the Civic Auditorium in San Jose. Active cases of tuberculosis found in this number had no previous knowledge of their disease.

This x-ray service is available to groups of any size. Arrangements for x-ray surveys may be made by calling the office of the association, room 506 Commercial Bldg., San Jose, Cal. 650.

NOBLE GRAND CLUB MEETS

Summer Recreation Program Plans For District Ready

In keeping with the plan to provide high school district-wide activities in recreation the Coordinating Council at a recent executive board meeting approved plans for the summer program. Art Tindall, director of the program, outlined a summer schedule which the board wholeheartedly approved.

Calling for the organizing of the playgrounds in the district, the plan will provide a varied list of activities for the largest possible group of children, young people and adults. The playgrounds, located at Cambrian school, San Tomas school, Moorpark school, Campbell school and at some point near the Hamilton-Meridian area, will be staffed partially by volunteer help and partially by paid personnel.

Tindall was authorized to select two additional workers trained in leadership and recreation to assist in the program. Applications are being considered at the present time for these positions. Anyone interested and qualified can contact Tindall at the grammar school or at his home.

Members of the PTA in all parts of the district are exhibiting unusual enthusiasm for the idea of voluntary aid on the playgrounds. Any mother having a half day a week which can be used to a very desirable end can help immeasurably by offering her services. It is felt that mothers will have the most interest in the whole idea, but if there are persons who are trained in certain skills applicable to playground or general recreation work, and who feel they can help, the welcome mat is out for them also.

An example of the type of operation being offered is that being set by Mrs. Alice Spencer, wife of Carl Spencer, leader of the Gay Nighters, San Jose folk dancing group, who is planning to offer folk dancing instruction to a large group on the afternoon she takes over the playground. Mrs. Spencer is a trained dancer, and is anxious to promote interest in this fine activity among the younger people.

To facilitate activities such as this, a school bus will be available to provide transportation for children from one portion of the district to another.

Hollister To Have Diamond Jubilee

Plans to celebrate Hollister's 75th birthday with a Diamond Jubilee, August 1, 2 and 3, under the sponsorship of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of Hollister, have been formulated and outlined with the various civic and fraternal organizations and service clubs.

Present plans consist of a pageant telling of the colorful history of Hollister, which is rich in early day episodes in the lives of the two colorful bandits, Murietta and Vasquez.

A barbecue, moonlight dancing, parades, queen contest from which the reigning queen will be chosen, are among many other attractions to appeal to young and old alike.

R. W. Day, managing director of the show, says plans for the Diamond Jubilee shall exceed anything of its nature in the state.

YOUR HOUSEHOLD DOLLAR

GUESS what part of your cost-of-living dollar goes for GAS and ELECTRICITY

That is a good question and you should know the answer. It is only a small part of each dollar you pay out to run your home and feed and clothe your family.

And the reason is that gas and electricity are among the very few cost-of-living items you still buy today at way-below pre-war prices. (Since 1939 the cost of electricity has gone down 16% and the cost of gas has gone down 33%).

The chart to the left, which is based on an official government report from the Bureau of Labor Statistics, shows that the costs of gas and electricity are mere fractions of each dollar you spend to maintain home and family.

Gas and Electricity are the outstanding bargains in the home today!

For Friday and Saturday it's "Dead Reckoning" at the Campbell theater. For those liking their film fare tough and smothered with realism, this is the dish. Columbia has given Elizabeth Scott an impressive role in which she parades a charming wardrobe, struts with sensual grace, and tosses her long blond hair glamorously, but it is the slugging, grimacing performance of Humphrey Bogart that predominates throughout. Supporting the pair is a taut and forceful story that generates increasing suspense.

Bogart as a returned Army paratrooper captain, decides to investigate the puzzling circumstances under which his old sergeant disappeared as he was about to be decorated with the Congressional Medal. The probings lead Bogart into some violent underworld mazes during which he is hunted by cops and beaten by sinister characters. Included in the murders that subsequently turn up is that of the sergeant who, it seems, fled publicity as he himself had been implicated in a prior murder of Miss Scott's husband.

While the action is involved, it is tense and exciting every moment of the way. In a rugged climax, Bogart uses incendiary jelly bombs to blast his way to the bottom of the case.

Some of the minor performances stand out conspicuously, notably Wallace Ford as a retired safe-cracker and Morris Carnovsky as the brutal night club proprietor.

John Cromwell directed with knowing hands from the slick screenplay of Oliver H. P. Garrett and Steve Fisher. Lee Tover has provided the Sidney Biddell production with some fine and skillful photography.

Campbell Court Notes

By Judge Blaine

A lovely youngish woman almost ran down the cycling Campbell judge by making an illegal U-turn from the second parking space in front of the Press office. A nice-looking elderly woman carelessly made a left turn into McCoy's Service Station right in front of the coming judge and forced him to make a flying leap to the sidewalk.

On the subject of U-turn California Vehicle Code reads: "(a) No vehicle in a business district shall be turned so as to proceed in the opposite direction, except at an intersection."

Even the first parking space would not be at an intersection. The intersection ends where the curb line begins. Of course, a U-turn near a business corner seems convenient, but it is unexpected and it is dangerous.

Also unexpected is a left turn into a private driveway in a business block. But it is apparently not illegal. In fact the Vehicle Code seems not even to mention it. Of the opposite movement the Code says, "The driver of a vehicle about to enter or cross a highway from any private road or driveway shall yield the right of way to all vehicles approaching on said highway." Of a left turn at an intersection it says, "The driver shall yield the right of way to any vehicle approaching from the opposite direction which is within the intersection or so close thereto as to constitute an immediate hazard." Common sense would suggest at least the same consideration when the driver turns left within a block, but the Code forgot to say so.

Saturday night, June 28, at West Bay Motors in Redwood City, with Duke Martin's Roundup Gang furnishing the music. On Saturday, June 21, the annual barbecue will be held at Flood Park, Atherton, under auspices of the Mounted Patrol of San Mateo county. It will start at 6 p.m.

What is the predicament, then, at a drive-in market? Your enemy must yield the right of way when driving out; but can he take the right of way when driving in, even when turning left? Only common sense replies. And let us hope that a court would support common sense. Certainly the Campbell court would—especially after its judge has saved himself several times by flying leaps to the most convenient sidewalk.

Speaking of the unexpected, one unexpected thing about traffic in Campbell is favorable: that accidents are not more numerous. The explanation is probably the obvious danger. Nothing saves us except awareness and agility. That we are lively is proved by the fact that we are alive.

Good-neighbor policy party-line style

To provide telephone service to more people, there are more party lines in use these days than ever before...and most telephones are busier than ever before. When you share a line with one or more parties, you'll all get the most from your telephone service if you'll remember...

Five Golden Rules for party-line neighbors

- Space your calls instead of making an extended series of them...and talk only as long as necessary.
- If yours is an emergency call, and the line is in use, explain the circumstances to the person using the line.
- If you are calling from a dial telephone, always make certain the line is clear before you dial.
- Ask your youngsters not to monopolize the telephone.
- Replace the receiver properly when you finish your call.

Thank you!

"WITH EYES THAT SEE NOT"

Look at the Flag floating o'er you;
Have you really seen it before?
Or have you taken it for granted,
As you have many blessings before.
Uncover your head and gaze proudly,
And think what it means to you:
Realize that it calls for all things
That are grand, and free, and true.

Each color it wears is a symbol
That you must humbly revere,
The banner itself is symbolic
Of all things you hold most dear.
The red that is proudly floating
Rippling in every breeze,
The blood that was shed by heroes
Should bring you down to your knees.

The white stands for the ideals—
Freedom and home and love,
That have brought you close to your Maker,
Approved by the Father above.
The third color, too, is sacred;
A bit from Heaven's own blue;
The tricolors blended together
Will prayerfully carry you through.

Clara Beebe Baldwin.

invited to attend.

On Sunday, June 22, the group will begin regular services with a complete program of Church School and worship period in the morning, young peoples' training hour and worship service in the evening. Prayer and Bible study hour will be held each Wednesday evening, continuing the study in the Book of Romans.

The temporary location of the church will be the third house

"Hello, handsome—what are you doing tonight?"

south of Hazeltine on the east side of San Tomas Avenue. The church will meet at this location while completing plans for a building in Campbell.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATIONS
When birthdays roll around, whether the years be six or sixty, there's cause for celebration. Party or no, there must be a birthday cake, even though the "cake" is favorite strawberry short-cake, or chocolate pie.

So it's to be a very special occasion—whimsical decorations for the little fellows—your pet sponge or sunshine cake frosted a pale green with little animal cracker lambs, white-frosted, "grazing" over the top, and green candles. At twenty, thirty, forty, celebrations may be family dinners, or friends in, and decorations built around hobbies, birthstones, flowers, etc.

WHOSE BIRTHDAY IS IT?
GRANDMOTHER—Then make her an Angel Sponge (Daffodil Cake). Cover it with swirls of seven-minute frosting. Use yellow candles in white flower candle holders. Spring flowers. Old friends in to tea.

GRANDPA—Maple Nut Cake for him. No special recipe for this but your favorite plain cake batter with $\frac{1}{2}$ to $\frac{3}{4}$ teaspoon maple flavoring and $\frac{1}{2}$ cup finely chopped walnuts stirred in. Use maple-flavored powdered sugar and cream frosting, walnut half garnish. A family dinner, with dishes he likes.

FATHER—Chocolate Layer Cake with a custard filling and covered with luscious chocolate frosting.

DAUGHTER—sophisticated sixteen. Lady Baltimore Cake, three layers of white cake. For filling, boiled frosting with chopped raisins, nuts, figs added. Plain boiled frosting atop. A dinner party for her, with a smart color scheme.

LITTLE JOHNNY, JR.—Dad's choice for him with plenty of vanilla ice cream. An all-boy luncheon and the movies afterwards.

SUSIE, aged six—Could it be a Pink and White Ribbon Cake. Mother, please? Again your favorite white cake, one layer tinted pink, one layer left white. Pink frosting and candles, and dolls and frills for table decorations.

MOTHER—her favorite dessert—Pie of tart little red pie cherries.

Drill holes around the edge of an old round cake or bread board. Sand-paper and enamel. Place candles in holes around the cake. No candle drippings over the cake this way.

FLASH GELATIN BIRTHDAY CAKE FOR BABY
—It's easy to make and good for baby. Use a pan about 8 inches in diameter and 3 to 4 inches deep, and layer in three colors of gelatin. Each layer should be slightly firm before adding the next. When firm, unmold and decorate with candles.

McBride directs the work of the class, which is also interested in the welfare of the local community and part of each session is devoted to local matters.

Fast Cooking With Pressure Pan

Shall I buy a pressure sauce pan? Mary Loc Saunders, assistant home demonstration agent, says that for the price you pay for a pressure sauce pan you are buying speed in cooking.

The pressure sauce pan pays off in quickly cooking foods that usually take a long time—pot roasts, stews, beans for baking, steamed puddings. The homemaker can have more time away from the kitchen and enjoy a wider choice of last minute menus.

After the air is driven out of the pressure sauce pan and the right temperature is reached, the fire can be turned low. This and the short time required save fuel.

On the whole, better cooking will result with a carefully used pressure sauce pan than by the cooking. Pressure sauce pans should not be left unattended.

The vitamins and minerals are saved. Color and flavor are better. The food cooks rapidly in steam under pressure and in a small amount of water. The pan heats rapidly and comes to the right pressure quickly because of the kind of metal and the small size of the cooker. Then the pan cools down rapidly.

Further details about pressure sauce pans will be supplied on request from the Agricultural Extension Service, 201 Postoffice Bldg., San Jose, Ph. Columbia 3866.

Cupid Scores In Campbell

Two young people who arrived in Campbell only a short time ago from different sections of the country will be married this coming Thursday afternoon. The bride-elect is Miss Barbara Whittington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard E. Whittington of Danville, Ill. She has been making her home since February with her uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. Gabe Long.

The future bridegroom is Robert E. Raker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Raker who arrived last fall from Oregon to make their home in Campbell. Robert has been living until recently in southern California following his discharge from the Navy in which he served for four years.

Two o'clock in the afternoon is the time set for the formal rites which will be held in the Campbell Congregational church with the Rev. Robert Carlson officiating. Miss Whittington has chosen Miss Joyce Bergland as her only attendant.

The bride's mother will arrive from Illinois in time to attend the ceremony.

Campbell will be the future home of the young couple who have purchased a home on Giles Way. The bridegroom-elect plans on completing his college education at San Jose State College and Stanford University.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Creston Foresee, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Cochran, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Cochran, Mr. and Mrs. Junior B. Cochran, Miss Shirley Cochran and D. A. Cochran.

A further surprise was the unannounced arrival the same day of their two nephews and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. John Pritchard and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Pritchard, all of Okmulgee, Okla.

NEW PARENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Norman C. Adams are the parents of a baby boy born June 5 at Community Service Hospital. The new arrival has been named Spencer Christian.

Social and Club Notes.. around Campbell

Madeleine Byrnes Weds M. Shadle

The First Methodist church in Campbell was the setting for a charming wedding on Sunday afternoon at four o'clock when Miss Madeleine Byrnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Byrnes, became the bride of Martin Shadle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Shadle. The Rev. Lawrence Osborne officiated at the rites amid floral decorations of hydrangeas, sweetpeas and snapdragons.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a suit of dusty pink complemented by grey accessories. She carried a Bible with an orchid bearing streamers and bouquet.

Attending the couple were the bridegroom's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Shadle. Mrs. Shadle chose a brown suit with blue accessories for the occasion. With this she wore a corsage of gardenias.

Performing the usher's duties was the bride's brother, Tom Byrnes. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Earl Buck sang "Always" and "The Lord's Prayer." She was accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Richard van Rossem.

A small reception for relatives and friends was held at the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony.

Mrs. Byrnes was dressed in grey with white accessories for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Herbert Shadle attended in a blue frock. Both mothers wore corsages of red roses.

The newly-weds graduated from Campbell Union High school and attended San Jose State. After a honeymoon in Santa Barbara they will be at home at 8 Alice Ave.

The bride was an honored guest on May 21 when Mrs. Franklin Blaine and Mrs. J. M. Dahl entertained at a bridal shower at the home of Mrs. Dahl.

Miss Byrnes was very picturesque as she sat underneath a large umbrella made with ruffles of white crepe paper and decorated with ribbon and silver bells, to receive the lovely gifts.

Individual little cakes attractively decorated with white roses and silver leaves and nut roll were served on decorated trays. To the enjoyment of her guests, Mrs. Dahl cut and served small pieces of cake from the top layer of her five-year-old wedding cake.

Those present to greet the honored guest and wish her much happiness were Mesdames E. R. Kennedy, Guy Farley, Archie Keesling, Dean Chamberlain, A. L. Beck, D. H. Cramer, L. Ben Howard, Earl C. Buck, Herman Rice, Herbert M. Shadle, C. C. Byrnes, Rose Hanger, Maud Imlay, the Misses Florence and Beth Kennedy, and the hostess, Mrs. Dahl, and the co-hostess, Mrs. Blaine.

Observes 83rd Birthday Here

All of Mr. George Baldwin's children and grandchildren were present at his Central Ave. home last Saturday to pay homage to him on his 83rd birthday.

Mrs. Baldwin had a pleasant surprise last week when she received news that one of her poems, "My Prayer," has been published in a booklet, entitled "Quiet Hour Poems," which is composed of poems selected from those submitted to the radio program, "The Quiet Hour." Mrs. Baldwin's entry appeared several months ago in the Campbell Press and received much favorable comment.

Horizon Club Enjoys Barbecue

The RAS (right after seven) Horizon club held a barbecue at the home of the president, Gayle Schrader, Tuesday evening. While waiting for the delicacies from the barbecue pit, the group held a business meeting. It was decided to postpone the program scheduled for June 20 until next fall. It was also agreed to go to Lou's Village the first or second of July.

Many of the girls are going to Camp Wastahi in Big Basin this summer. The meeting next Tuesday will be held at the home of Lorraine Wood on Rincon avenue.

Crawley Sons To Claim Brides Soon

Cupid has been hard at work in the D. T. Crawley family recently. Leaving as soon as he graduates from San Jose State is David Crawley, who will claim his bride, Miss Betty Goetz, in Tiffin, Ohio, her home. After their marriage they will make their home in Campbell. Many Campbell people remember the bride-elect from her brief visit here just before Thanksgiving.

Coming as a surprise to their friends was the announcement of the engagement of Miss Kathy Shaffer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Shaffer of Eureka, to Robert Crawley. They plan on a September wedding. Miss Shaffer is at present a San Jose State College student.

The surprise announcement was made at a shower given by Mrs. Donald Lantz in honor of Miss Gay Briggs, bride-elect of Bob Howe of Campbell. This young couple have set July 13 as their wedding date.

Guests attending the shower were Kathy Shaffer, Mary Groves, Ruth Cousins, Dotti Rae Fliflet, Emily Baptista, Marilyn Zeller, Kathleen and Josephine McCarthy, of Oakland, Mrs. Howard Stinson of San Jose and the daughter of the hostess, Pamela Lantz.

Miss Hubble Is June Bride

Sunday was a popular day in Campbell for June weddings. Miss Betty Jane Hubble chose that day for the two o'clock rites which united her in marriage with William H. Morgan. The double-ring ceremony was held in the Campbell Methodist church with the Rev. Lawrence Osborne officiating. Mrs. Leslie Ackerman and Mrs. Greg Rice decorated the interior of the church with pastel colored flowers and entwined the altar rail with ferns, ivy and sweetpeas. The space behind the pulpit was attractively banked with vari-colored flowers.

A white suit with pale pink accessories was the bride's choice for her wedding. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and bouvardia and was given in marriage by her uncle, A. W. Cobb.

Miss Verna Jean Miller, the bride's attendant, wore a pale pink suit with white accessories. Her bouquet was fashioned of mixed flowers arranged into a French nosegay.

Daniel Wolford Morgan, twin brother of the bridegroom, performed the best man's duties, and ushers were Philip Nelson and Donald Rice.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. N. Hubble of Esther Ave. Mr. and Mrs. Arvin Burch, South Second street, are the parents of the bridegroom.

At the reception, held at the Hubble home, the bride's mother was gowned in a print jersey with black accessories. Her corsage was composed of fuschia colored gladiolas.

Mrs. Burch selected an aqua crepe frock for the occasion and also wore black accessories. Pink gladiolas made up her attractive corsage.

After a wedding trip up the Redwood highway, the young couple will make their home in Campbell.

NOW IN ST. LOUIS

Mrs. Ronald Wheeler (Betty Jeane McKay) left by plane this week to join her husband who is now stationed in St. Louis, Missouri. The Wheelers were married in Los Gatos on May 10.

WASHINGTON WORRIES

Washington—Fears of a depression still hover over Capitol Hill, the veterans' housing program is stymied, the manifold problems of a post-war world plague the state department. In the background of many of the official deliberations is the specter of the 1948 campaign while the battle of society injects a note of levity. Here is pertinent comment on the current situation.

Your Pocketbook—Privately, Mr. Truman and his advisers are still upset about a depression. Recession hasn't set in yet, but costs haven't come down and the price-cut campaign proved a washout. The council of economic advisers told Mr. Truman that layoffs—not reflected in unemployment figures—are mounting. Unemployed now total two and a half million. . . . Landlords are ready to nick at the pocketbook again. Mr. Truman fears a last-minute rent-control extension bill which he'll be forced to sign like the OPA bill last summer. The rent bill congress has in mind means increases of from 15 to 50 per cent in rent costs.

New Homes—Making no housing progress for the veteran is the whole administration housing program. Economists say six billion dollars worth of new homes were necessary by 1947. Figures show less than half of that will be built. This means chances of a new house and apartment are almost nil, also that continued high demand puts renters at mercy of landlords.

Society News—Passing of Mrs. Evelyn Walsh McLean leaves Oklahoma oil heiress Mrs. Perle Mesta as No. 1 reigning queen of Washington society. Mrs. Mesta, who dined the Trumans before H. S. T. became president. Runner-up in society sweepstakes is Mrs. Morris Cafritz.

Democratic Dots and Dashes—Democratic party headquarters have started sprouting "Truman in '48" buttons. They say that it's no longer a secret that Mr. Truman will run. What is a secret is that he hasn't been paying much attention to recommendations from his democratic national committee. War and Peace Dept.—General Marshall now finds state department is no bed of roses. Marshall is worried about everything from congress to the decorations of his new offices. Senator Vandenberg won't budge on confirmation of Francis Biddle to be American delegate to U.S. social and economic council. This is a very important job. Vandenberg wants more business-minded man in job. Marshall refuses to throw his prestige on the table in all-out fight for Biddle.

Even the art murals at state department worry Marshall. New state department building was designed for war department, and entering diplomats are confronted with murals of flaming guns, fiery tanks and diving bomber planes—hardly a motif for peace.

Republican Worries—GOP becomes more and more disturbed about licking Mr. Truman. Old political axiom: "You can't lick someone with no one," still holds good. At least 10 Republicans are running against Mr. Truman and they have no united policy, frequently step on each other's toes.

Bradley's Battles—Two-fisted Gen. Omar Bradley, vets' administrator, has his hands full with congress. Bradley took the rundown most by sheer will power into the most efficient veterans organization in the nation's history. Yet, he gets almost no recognition. He makes few enemies, gets into few fights, does the job. Slogan around the White House is "Omar can take care of himself." Bradley does.

Agricultural Outlook—One cabinet member with few headaches is able Secretary of Agriculture Clinton Anderson. Farm outlook this year is bright. Surpluses will be ample to restock sorely tried reserves, but not large enough to be alarming. Even sugar outlook is improving at home with drop in foreign demand. Dairy prices disturb experts who don't know what level they'll settle at. Foreign cotton demand has dropped, which may ease pressure on cotton prices despite short crop. Farm labor outlook is still bad, with city jobs offering sharp competition in way of easier work, more greenbacks.

Union Now?—Biggest question still facing AFL and CIO is "union now." Should they team up or not? Both groups are willing, but they can't agree on terms. CIO wants one big new union. AFL wants everyone to come back into the federation, take their chances.

Justice Dept.—Atty. Gen. Tom Clark plans whole series of speeches pledging safeguards to civil liberties in new "loyalty" investigations. Democratic party leaders want him to make flat pledge of no "witch hunts" like those that followed World War I. Clark will not promise.

LAST MEETING OF SEASON

Members of the Women's Service Club of Campbell will end the club year with a picnic at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Lloyd Wednesday, June 18. Co-hostesses will be Mesdames Arthur Tindall, W. Means and H. Robertson.

HISTORY OF CAMPBELL

The debris of the mounds are more or less stratified, and occasionally there is a distinct line of demarcation between the fresher top layers and the more disintegrated layers beneath, as though the mound had fallen into disuse for a considerable period of time between two periods of occupancy. Early investigators found little difference between the human bones, the artifacts, or the shells in the upper and lower layers of the mounds. The same implements were scattered from top to bottom through the debris.

W.D. Weymouth, however, says that recent investigation has shown three rather well defined levels of culture. These usually appear more clearly in different mounds than in layers of the same mound. In the oldest mounds or layers the bodies were buried at full length, face down, with heads pointing to the west. In those of medium age the skeletons are found with knees drawn up to the chin. In the late mounds few skeletons were found, since the bodies were mostly burned. Obsidian artifacts and charm stones and improved workmanship are also observable in the most recent mounds.

In careful measurements of 47 Indian skulls collected from throughout California. Hrdlicka found such great similarity that he considered them all closely related. He also found the skulls somewhat similar to those of the Aztecs and a few other Mexican Indians. Those collected from Oregon and from Lower California, however, he found quite different.

The skulls found in the region of San Francisco Bay were larger than those from other regions. This he attributed to the greater abundance of food in the bay area. Campbell to this day produces more lads over six feet tall than any locality with which the writer is familiar; but whether it is the fruit, the water, the climate, or some more obscure factor he is unable to say.

In winter the Indians of the mounds depended upon the flocks of innumerable ducks and other water fowl that wintered on the bay down to the time of the Spaniards. In the summer they paddled their tule rafts across to Angel Alcatraz or Goat island to rob the rookeries of the cormorants. The mounds show heaps of fledgling cormorant bones. This meat was supplemented by the mollusks of the bay, sea bass, and other fish, and by an occasional whale, come to some unfortunate end and cast upon the beach.

The shell mounds strongly indicate that the Indians of the bay region seldom traveled or migrated. They either lacked curiosity about the surrounding world or, more probably, were afraid to venture into it. But they did show great courage in defending their own territory against invasion.

Indian arrowheads are to be found throughout California. The writer has gathered them from both the shores and islands of Clear Lake, from the upper Yosemite and from various localities in Santa Clara and San Mateo counties. One of the most interesting finds was out in the desert east of Mono Lake. There between a rugged cliff, in which was a sheltering cave, and a lively spring of water, out a few yards on the sand, he and his grandson found fine flint and obsidian points. In imagination they could see the Indians of a long past day lurking among the rocks at the base of the cliff to shoot the elk and deer that came from the hot desert to drink at the spring. Then at dusk would be the fire at the mouth of the cave and the feast.

Illustrative of the unnecessary difficulties with which scientists have to contend is the case of the "Calaveras Skull." Back in 1866 when little was known about California paleontology, a skull was given to the state geologist who was told that it had been taken from a gold placer beneath 100 feet of lava. Geologists determined that the lava cap was of Pliocene age, and the skull was accordingly thought to be a rival of the Java Man in age. Then it was divulged that the lime encrusted skull had been found in a cave by two miners and planted in the gravel as a practical joke on the "professor."

It is astonishing that in a possible period of 3000 years the Costanoans (as the Spaniards called the coast Indians) show almost no appreciable advance in culture. In the same period of time the Mayas, the Toltecs and the Incas to the south built great temples and walled cities, learned the art of agriculture, and developed involved and independent cultures. But the Indians of the Santa Clara Valley never learned venton, and the urge to achievement was apparently lacking even to make pottery. Food came too easily to stimulate in the race. He showed less spirit and daring than his ancestors, for although living on the very edge of one of the finest bays in the world, his only boat was a bundle of tule reeds that would have quickly gone to pieces in Behring Strait.

One change, however, should be particularly noted. Charm stones and magic bobs are reported only in the top layers of the mounds. This points to a progressive superstition and increasing reliance upon magic, poor substitutes for courage and invention.

Crucifixes and adobe bricks in the upper layers of some of the mounds indicate occupancy down to mission days. Bird and animal bones were always broken before being discarded. Animal bones may have been broken for their marrow, but not the hollow bones of birds. Artifacts placed in graves were also broken. The fear of evil spirits may explain this habit. The destruction of such objects might be supposed to discourage the return of harassing spirits.

State College Alumni Meet

San Jose State College alumni from all parts of California are invited to attend the annual Homecoming on the campus Saturday, June 14. The celebration begins with early morning breakfast and reunions, features a traditional outdoor luncheon at 12:30, and closes with a dance at Hotel de Anza in the evening.

Speakers for the main-event luncheon, which can accommodate a maximum crowd of 600, will be President Thomas W. MacQuarrie of the college, the football coach, Wilbur "Bill" Hubbard, William Stevens, '35 of San Jose, president of the Alumni Association, will preside.

Golden Grads, unique association of alumni who graduated from SJS 50 or more years ago, will meet between 9:30 and 12 to elect officers and conduct other business. Their president is W. J. Cagney, '91, of Lancaster.

Classes of 50, 25 and 10 years ago, the graduates of 1897, 1922 and 1937, will be honored at the Homecoming. The 1897 class will be accepted into the Golden Grad association.

Mrs. George McGrath (Evelyn Cavala, '35) of San Jose is general chairman for the day, which will observe the theme of "Lest We Forget." Exhibits and programs will reflect the theme.

A concert by the student symphony band will be given in the quad during the morning, and a recital of old school songs on the college chimes will summon alumni to the official luncheon. Edwin Westerstrom, '36, of San Jose, will succeed Stevens as association president.

The association hopes to raise $15,000, its share of a $50,000 goal toward a Memorial Chapel for the college by Homecoming Day.

WHAT OUR READERS THINK

Dear Editor:
If you can spare me space for this brief letter I will be very appreciative.

I am still in touch with some of the growing lads of Campbell and was delighted to be able to write to Paul Meyers and ask him for further information on his remarkable development physically and also to inquire as to the other, and in this day and age necessary, developments. Paul was a Cub and a Scout and also was a member for years of the Congregational Sunday School and youth groups. I believe that many of his friends will be interested in extracts of his reply.

"The time of school and youth goes by fast, Mr. Bennett, I only wish I was six and coming to Sunday school again. I go to Columbus or Macon. I like the church at Macon best. The young people's meetings are like old times. They really promote good living."

Then he quotes a saying that he discovered early in his army life:

"To live in the presence of great truths and Eternal Laws and to be led by permanent ideals."

I am using these words in my baccalaureate talk in Auburn this coming Sunday evening. It is a matter of deep encouragement for the worker in Campbell to know that their labors were not all in vain.

Sincerely yours:
Joseph H. Bennett,
The Congregational Church,
Loomis, Calif.

KOPPER KETTLE WINS AGAIN

Monday night saw a see-saw game which ended in victory for the Kopper Kettle team over Gene's Market of Los Gatos by a score of 12 to 11. One inning almost proved disastrous for the locals when Gene's scored 8 runs after two men were out. Next Friday night the K.K. team will play Lico's Market of Campbell, at Los Gatos.

Campaign Workers Near Midway Mark

With more than $400,000 subscribed for expansion of Community Service Hospital, volunteer workers in the campaign are seeking new gifts this week to apply to the million-dollar goal.

A total of $402,273 was reported at the first official report dinner of the campaign held at O'Brien's in San Jose with 100 chairmen and key workers present.

James T. Rye, general campaign chairman, emphasized that the $402,273 reported at the first official report dinner was the total amount subscribed to that date.

Pointing out that in many campaigns it is customary to withhold part of the advance gifts at early report meetings, Rye said, "There are no holdbacks here. This is IT!"

He urged workers to intensify their efforts in preparation for the second report dinner tonight.

"This is by far the biggest amount every raised here in a single campaign, but we've got a long way to go to reach our million-dollar goal," Rye said. "Let's get going on the rest of that million."

Principal speaker at the dinner was Dr. J. B. Josephson, president of Santa Clara County Medical society, and chairman of the doctors' division of the campaign. Dr. Josephson said that doctors of the community had subscribed over $109,000 or more than ten per cent of the total goal.

Endertons Back For Visit Here

Welcome visitors in Campbell have been the Col. H. C. Enderton family who recently returned from Germany. The Colonel is awaiting orders and the family is visiting in California and Arizona in the meantime. For more than a year Mrs. Enderton and her children made their home here while Col. Enderton was overseas.

They report a pleasant stay in Germany and many interesting experiences.

Campbell Boy Is Critically Injured

Still in a critical condition at the time of going to press was two-year-old Michael Roberts, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. F. Roberts, Rt. 1, Box 235, Campbell. The boy, now at the County Hospital, was injured Sunday when the car in which he was riding with his grandparents, aunt and two friends of the older people, rolled over a 20-foot embankment on Big Basin road.

His grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Barbano, and their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Vario, were taken to O'Connor hospital where they are now declared out of danger. Uninjured was the boy's aunt, Mrs. Florence Barbano, who was driving the car. She reported to Highway Patrolmen G. Brooks and Angelo Yglesias that the brakes failed to work on a down grade.
